

August 2019 Hub & Spoke --- 1948 Cadillac Series 62

Lynchburg AACA Region

Web Site <http://lynchburgva.aaca.com/>

LYNCHBURG REGION AACA
MEETING MINUTES: July 22, 2019

President Charles Thaxton called meeting to order about 6:25pm. He asked members to stand and have the Pledge of Allegiance and to observe a moment of silence.

There were no guests or new members.

Liz Williams reported that Otto Vallastro had been in the hospital but was present at tonight's meeting.

Secretary's report for June, 2019 was voted on and accepted as published in the H&S and on-line.

Treasurer's report was given by Ron Blalock and accepted by vote from members present. President Charles asked if any of the members had any suggestions as to where to send donation(s) if Club is dissolved at end of this year. There were no suggestions from the floor.

NEW BUSINESS:

Tony Simmons contacted Charles to inform the club that he has taken positions in the Corvette Club. Tony stated the duties with these positions would preclude his continuing with the Lynchburg Region AACA after the end of this year.

This also includes not being able to fulfill duties with the H&S after December this year. Charles thanked Tony for all of his help and said he personally hated to see Marianne and Tony leave the club.

John and Shanna Kenney have moved and are settled in a house south of Charlotte, NC.

Helen and Bernie Davis announced they are almost ready to move to Ohio.

We are certainly saddened that these four members have left the state. Charles said he hoped they will enjoy their opportunities and adventures.

JULY ACTIVITIES:

July 27 from 10:00 to 3:00pm there will be a Car Show at the James River Visitors Center on the Parkway. Go thru Big Island on 501 North and exit for the Parkway. Take a right on Parkway and the Center is on your right. Bring a light lunch or snack and drinks because there is no food at the Center.

AUGUST ACTIVITIES:

There was some discussion about going on a tour of Reggie's shop, Dr. Blackburn's, Kyle Hayden's and Wallace Arthur's car collection. This has not been able to be put together, as of this time, so the tours have been postponed. (Wallace Arthur has sold all of his cars). We may reschedule for a later date.

Boonsboro UMC will hold their annual car show on Saturday August 17th from 10 to 3 pm. Plan to arrive early so we can group and set up our cars together. The church usually has homemade ice cream, hot dogs, and maybe hamburgers. Church is right on Boonsboro Road and is easy to find.

THERE WAS NO OLD BUSINESS:

OTHER BUSINESS:

The Thaxton's took Charles' 1938 Packard to Roanoke's Motor City Madness car show. There were 400+/- cars, hot rods, motorcycles, vendors and food trucks present. It was an interesting event. Lots of people who asked questions about the vehicles parked on Roanoke's downtown streets. But HOT !!

Charles Thaxton and AACA winner Robbie Williams were extended invitations to have one of their vehicles

(Packard and Studebaker) at the Virginia Festival of the Wheel Concourse in Charlottesville on Sunday, September 1st. It will be held at the Boars Head Inn and Resort. This is an honor for our club to present two vehicles at this Concourse.

50/50 Drawing & Adjournment.
